

LIVINGSTON HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION BROCHURE

June 21, 2016

Description of Livingston Homeowners Association Lands

Brookfield Residential (Alberta) LP, by its general partner Carma Ltd. ("Brookfield Residential") is developing a new residential community in the north portion of the City of Calgary, known generally as Livingston. Livingston is located within the Keystone Hills Area Structure Plan, as approved by the City of Calgary (the "City"). The approximately 1,270 acres of land owned by Brookfield as outlined on Exhibit 1 of Schedule A hereto is hereafter called the "Livingston Lands." It is presently anticipated that the Livingston Lands will be comprised of approximately 6,000 single family residential units and 5,000 multi-family residential units and 70 acres of commercial and institutional lands. These are only estimates for the Livingston Lands based on current plans. The Livingston development may, on Brookfield Residential's approval and in its discretion, be expanded to include other lands within the vicinity of the Livingston Lands, which are owned by Brookfield Residential or by others. If that occurs, then such other lands as Brookfield Residential so determines shall be deemed to be included in the Livingston Lands.

In developing the Livingston Lands, Brookfield Residential has or will be including certain amenities in addition to the requirements of the City. Some of these amenities may be developed on public land to be transferred to the City by Brookfield Residential, however such amenities may be operated by a private homeowners' association for the lasting benefit of all residents. Certain other amenities may be developed on land to be transferred to that homeowners association, to be owned and operated by it for the benefit of the residents of the Livingston lands. These amenities are considered by Brookfield Residential as necessary to complement the Livingston's overall development concept and to clearly distinguish Livingston from other communities.

It is anticipated that Brookfield Residential will provide overall direction and management of the operations of the homeowners' association for so long as Brookfield Residential is actively developing the Livingston Lands. Also, during this period Brookfield Residential will be the only Voting Member of the Association entitled to vote at Members' meetings. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Brookfield Residential, in its sole discretion, may allow other members of the Association to attend, and vote at, Members' meetings, however, those votes by the members, other than Brookfield Residential, will have no legal effect.

Livingston Homeowners Association

Brookfield Residential has incorporated Livingston Homeowners Association (the "Association") as the homeowners' association which will be responsible for the maintenance of certain amenities, and in some cases, ownership of those amenities, located in the Livingston Lands.

The Association will also provide certain financial and administrative services including the collection of fees from the residents of the Livingston Lands. These fees are necessary to fund the operations of the Association and the maintenance and operation of the amenities. The operations of the Association may be expanded to include other functions which are of common benefit to members.

The owners of single family residential lots, multi-family residential lots (including condominium units) and multi-family rental projects within the Livingston Lands, are all automatically members of, and are required to remain members of, the Association and will be responsible for the timely payment of membership fees to the Association as hereinafter set forth. A copy of the Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association of the Association are attached to this brochure as Schedules B and C respectively.

The schedules which form a part of this Brochure are the following:

Schedule A	Livingston Management Agreement
Schedule B	Livingston Homeowners Association Memorandum of Association
Schedule C	Livingston Homeowners Association Articles of Association
Schedule D	Encumbrance
Schedule E	Rules and Regulations

Description of Livingston Amenities

Brookfield Residential at its separate cost is in the course of constructing and developing, and will be constructing and developing, certain amenities within the Livingston Lands or manage amenities on city-owned sites or community association sites (the "Livingston Amenities"), which may or may not consist of, and may or may not be limited to, amenities such as a playground, community gardens, picnic shelter, fire pit plaza, skating rink, storage building, an entry feature, perimeter fencing and such other amenities situate on public and private lands as Brookfield Residential may determine in the course of developing the Livingston Lands.

Brookfield Residential may, at its sole discretion in its future planning and development of the Livingston Lands, provide at Brookfield Residential's and/or the Association's separate cost (as determined by Brookfield), additional amenities as part of the Livingston Amenities. The location, character, nature of improvements on, and final acreage and boundaries of, the Livingston Amenities are subject to the approval of the City and other regulatory authorities, and also subject to negotiations between Brookfield Residential and the City and, possibly, other developers of lands within the Livingston Lands.

It is anticipated that the residents and other owners of land within the Livingston Lands may wish to create further amenities or improvements for the benefit of the Livingston Lands and its residents (in addition to the Livingston Amenities), but unless it agrees otherwise, Brookfield Residential shall have no responsibility for the development or operation of any such further amenities or improvements.

The Association will assume responsibility for the Livingston Amenities and, if the Association so wishes, for the enhanced maintenance of certain publicly owned lands within the Livingston Lands including, but not limited to, public parks, public utility lots and boulevards. This may include arrangements with the City or others relating to such maintenance. The management, and where applicable the ownership, of the Livingston Amenities will be transferred to the Association in accordance with the terms of the Livingston Management Agreement attached as Schedule A hereto. The use and enjoyment of the Livingston Amenities will also be subject to the rules and regulations contained in Schedule E hereto, as such rules and regulations may be modified from time to time by the Association.

Brookfield Residential will use its best efforts to carry out the above commitments; however, its ability to do so and the timing of their completion are subject to receiving all required governmental and City approvals, and any events beyond Brookfield Residential's reasonable control which may delay such completion.

The Association's minimum maintenance and indemnity obligations in respect of that part of the Livingston Amenities located on public lands to be transferred to the City may be the subject of agreements to be concluded between the City and Brookfield Residential, which will be assumed by the Association at Brookfield Residential's direction.

Operation of the Livingston Homeowners Association by Brookfield Residential

On or before the later of the date on which Brookfield Residential has sold its last lands in the Livingston Lands, or the date upon which the Association has repaid any loans owing to Brookfield Residential, Brookfield Residential intends to transfer to the Association the overall management of the Association and the operation of the Livingston Amenities. As long as Brookfield Residential is managing the Association, an operating budget so as to allow for its proper operation, as determined in the sole opinion of Brookfield Residential, shall be approved by Brookfield Residential and if such operating budget is not fully funded by the income received from the Encumbrances or any other sources of income available to the Association, Brookfield Residential agrees to loan sufficient funds to the Association in accordance with the terms of the Livingston Management Agreement, in order to meet such budgeted expenses. Any income received by the Association in excess of actual operating expenses shall forthwith be used by it to repay any outstanding Brookfield Residential loans.

Brookfield Residential will operate, maintain and manage the Livingston Amenities until it has fully transferred the overall management of the Association. As set forth in the Livingston Management Agreement attached hereto, Brookfield Residential shall be entitled to retain agents for the administration, operation and overall management of the Association and the Livingston Amenities. Except for reimbursement for its direct costs, out of pocket expenses and reasonable administration fees, Brookfield Residential will not be entitled to any other fees for such operation and management.

Encumbrances

To pay for the operations of the Association, including the operation and maintenance of the Livingston Amenities, Brookfield Residential will attempt to have the title of each residential lot, multi-family lot, rental project and condominium unit in the Livingston Lands be made subject to a rent charge Encumbrance in favour of the Association, securing payment to the Association of a fee. The Encumbrance will generally be in the form of Schedule D to this brochure and the amount of such Encumbrance for each such residential lot or unit shall be FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS ($400.00) per year, subject to adjustment for inflation as provided in the Encumbrance. The Association may in any year choose to charge an amount of fees other than that provided for in the Encumbrance. The undersigned agrees to require any purchaser or transferee of the undersigned's lands in the Livingston Lands to assume all the undersigned's obligations under this Brochure (including the Schedules hereto) and to execute in favour of the Association an Encumbrance in like form of Schedule D, as a condition to any such purchase or transfer. The payment of annual fees, and membership in the Association, are more fully explained in the Association's Articles of Association which are attached as Schedule C to this brochure.

Acknowledgments by Purchaser

The undersigned acknowledges and is aware that, pursuant to the Livingston Management Agreement, Brookfield Residential has undertaken the full responsibility for the design, engineering, development and construction of and the initial management and operation of the Livingston Amenities, and the initial overall management and operation of the Association, and Brookfield Residential has the complete and unfettered right and authority from the Association to carry out such responsibilities in such manner as it sees fit. The undersigned acknowledges that the Association (as set out in Articles 54, 54.1 and 55 of its Articles of Association) has instructed its officers and directors to fully cooperate with Brookfield Residential and has relieved its officers and directors of any responsibility to investigate or to determine whether or not Brookfield Residential is properly carrying out its obligations as set out above.

The undersigned, as a future member of the Association, acknowledges and unanimously agrees with all other members or future members that, as set out in Articles 54, 54.1 and 55 of the Association's Articles of Association, it is intended and he or she agrees that the officers and directors of the Association should fully cooperate with Brookfield Residential and that all of their rights, duties and obligations that conflict with Brookfield

Residential's rights as set out in the Livingston Management Agreement, or any other agreement with Brookfield Residential, are and have been suspended during the period of Brookfield Residential's initial operation of the Association, including the period of development, planning, construction and initial operation of the Livingston Amenities, except to the extent required in order for them to carry out such cooperation.

No member of the Association or any property owner shall have any personal or legal interest in the Livingston Amenities or in any part thereof or to the proceeds of the said encumbrances other than as a member of the Association. As well, a member's right to membership in the Association is not transferable and it only takes effect and is enforceable for so long as he or she remains an owner or tenant of such residential lot or condominium unit, or owner of such a rental project, which is located in the Livingston Lands.

The undersigned is the purchaser of:

in the Livingston Lands against which the Encumbrance is or will be registered, and the undersigned agrees to pay FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS ($400.00) per each year hereafter, subject to adjustment, as required by the Encumbrance or such other fee as may be charged by the Association in accordance with the provisions of the Association's Articles of Association. The undersigned hereby irrevocably appoints the Association as his or her attorney on his or her behalf and for the Association's use and benefit, to execute and deliver a new rent charge Encumbrance generally in the form of Schedule D, in the event that a previous encumbrance has been foreclosed off or otherwise removed from the title to the above-mentioned lot or unit.

This Brochure and the Schedules hereto constitute the entire agreement and understanding between Brookfield Residential and the undersigned regarding the Association and its Livingston Amenities, and no representations, warranties, covenants or promises have been made or are made by Brookfield Residential save those herein expressly contained.

THIS AGREEMENT MADE THE 21st DAY OF JUNE, 2016

BETWEEN:

BROOKFIELD RESIDENTIAL (ALBERTA) LP,
by its general partner CARMA LTD., a limited partnership pursuant to the laws of the Province of Alberta (hereinafter called "Brookfield")

OF THE FIRST PART

- and -

LIVINGSTON HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION, a body corporate incorporated pursuant to the laws of the Province of Alberta (hereinafter called the "Association")

OF THE SECOND PART

WHEREAS:

A. Brookfield is the owner of a portion of those lands situated in the north part of the City of Calgary, Alberta as shown outlined in Exhibit 1 hereto and being generally called Livingston (all such lands as shown on Exhibit 1 hereto, and such other lands in the vicinity of the lands in Exhibit 1 hereto as Brookfield may in its sole and unfettered discretion determine, are hereafter collectively referred to as the "Livingston Lands");

B. Brookfield proposes to create residential lots and residential sites on the Livingston Lands and to benefit such residential lots and residential sites by creating certain amenities to be determined solely by Brookfield (the "Livingston Amenities") on certain portions of the Livingston Lands to be owned by the City of Calgary or by others. The final acreage and boundaries of the Livingston Amenities are subject to the approval of the City of Calgary and other regulatory authorities;

C. Brookfield has determined to create and develop the Livingston Amenities with the intention that they be private (and in some cases public), non-profit facilities for the benefit of the residents of the Livingston Lands;

D. The complete development of the Livingston Lands is expected to take a number of years;

E. The Association wishes Brookfield to fully complete the development of the Livingston Lands and the Livingston Amenities;

F. The Association acknowledges that it has had no part in the planning or the development of the Livingston Amenities or the Livingston Lands, that all the planning has been done by Brookfield and that the responsibility for developing the Livingston Amenities is Brookfield's;

G. Brookfield will attempt to have each of its purchasers within the Livingston Lands sign a copy of the Livingston Brochure setting out the rights and responsibilities of the members of the Association. Attached to and forming part of the Brochure (as Schedule A thereto) is this Agreement and the following additional Schedules:

Schedule B	Livingston Homeowners Association Memorandum of Association
Schedule C	Livingston Homeowners Association Articles of Association
Schedule D	Encumbrance
Schedule E	Rules and Regulations

which additional Schedules are incorporated in this Agreement and form a part hereof;

H. Brookfield has caused the Association to be incorporated pursuant to the Companies Act (Alberta) and the Association has been organized pursuant to its Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association for the purposes of the Association ultimately owning (where applicable) and managing the Livingston Amenities, and for such other purposes which are for the common benefit of the Association's members;

I. The parties acknowledge and agree that it is their common intention that the Association will initially be managed by Brookfield (or its agents as herein set forth) and that the Livingston Amenities will initially be wholly engineered, developed, operated and managed by Brookfield (or its agents as herein set forth), and that it is the intention of both parties that the Association will have no responsibility for any portion of the Livingston Amenities, nor have any authority regarding such management of the Association or such engineering, development, operation and management of any portion of the Livingston Amenities, until the date that the management of the Association and of the Livingston Amenities is formally transferred to the Association, all in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH that in consideration of the premises and mutual covenants herein contained, the parties hereto covenant and agree as follows:

1. Brookfield will construct the Livingston Amenities and will equip same with such signs, lighting, equipment and landscaping as are in Brookfield's opinion reasonably necessary for the operation of same, all at Brookfield's cost. To the extent that any such initial costs are to be borne by the Association, Brookfield may (but shall not be required to) loan the necessary funds to the Association on generally available commercial terms as Brookfield determines.

2. Brookfield shall construct, develop and maintain on portions of the Livingston Lands, such improvements as Brookfield in its sole discretion shall determine and such improvements shall constitute the Livingston Amenities and, subject to the terms hereof, Brookfield shall manage and operate the Association and the Livingston Amenities until that date (the "Effective Date") which is the later of:

- (a) six (6) months after the date upon which Brookfield has sold its last lands within the Livingston Lands; or
- (b) the date upon which all monies owed to Brookfield by the Association have been fully repaid to Brookfield;

or such earlier date as Brookfield in its sole discretion may determine.

3. Brookfield may determine, in its sole discretion, prior to the Effective Date:

- (a) to transfer management and/or ownership of any part of the Livingston Amenities to the Association. It is understood and agreed that Brookfield's rights in respect of the Livingston Amenities as herein contained shall continue unabated until the Effective Date, notwithstanding its prior transfer of management and/or ownership of part of the Livingston Amenities to the Association; and
- (b) to transfer certain aspects of the overall management of the Association to the Association.

4. On such date(s) as Brookfield determines, but in any event by no later than the Effective Date, Brookfield shall, pursuant to assignment agreements acceptable to Brookfield, assign to the Association Brookfield's interest in all agreements entered into between Brookfield and the City of Calgary relating to the Livingston Amenities and the maintenance thereof and responsibility therefor, and pursuant to which the Association will assume from Brookfield all of its obligations and liabilities under such agreements and will indemnify Brookfield in respect of same.

5. The registration and organization of the Association has been done at the sole expense of Brookfield.

6. Brookfield as the initial owner of all the residential building lots and condominium sites in the Livingston Lands will, upon the initial sale by Brookfield of each such residential building lot and condominium site, attempt to cause the same to be encumbered by the Encumbrance substantially in the form of Schedule D to the Brochure to which this Agreement is also a schedule. Notwithstanding the forgoing, Brookfield shall not be liable for any damages or costs if the Encumbrance is not registered against any residential building lots or condominium sites.

7. Until the Effective Date, Brookfield will either prepare or approve the operating budget for the Association, so as to allow for the proper operation of the Association and maintenance and operation of the Livingston Amenities as determined in the sole opinion of Brookfield acting reasonably. Such budget shall be considered in determining the Association's annual membership fees.

8. If such operating budget is not fully funded by the Association's income derived from the Encumbrances or other sources, and provided that Brookfield has in writing approved the amount of the annual membership fees assessed for that fiscal year, then Brookfield agrees to loan sufficient funds to the Association in order to meet such budgeted expenses, such loans to be repayable on demand and to bear interest from time to time at a rate of interest determined by Brookfield, but not exceeding Prime Rate plus three percent (3%). "Prime Rate" shall mean the prime rate of interest charged by The Toronto-Dominion Bank, being a variable per annum reference rate of interest (as announced by the said bank from time to time) for Canadian dollar loans made by the said bank in Canada. Any income received by the Association (whether by collection of assessments through the Encumbrances or otherwise) in excess of actual operating expenses shall forthwith be used by it to repay any outstanding Brookfield loans in priority to any other obligations.

9. It is understood and agreed that either Brookfield or the Association may refuse membership, or may terminate the membership of those owners of residential building lots and condominium units within the Livingston Lands whose title does not have registered against it the Encumbrance and may require the registration of any such Encumbrance which has been removed from the title to their lot or lands.

10. If by the Effective Date all the residential lots or other lands owned by Brookfield and located in the Livingston Lands have not been sold by Brookfield, Brookfield will be entitled to sell such lots or lands subject to the right of membership in the Association and shall at that time attempt to obtain the execution and registration of the appropriate Encumbrance as may be determined by Brookfield.

11. On or prior to the Effective Date, and provided that all loans owed by the Association to Brookfield have been repaid in full (or other arrangements for repayment thereof, satisfactory to Brookfield in its sole discretion, have been made) Brookfield will, for a total nominal consideration of $1.00, deliver to the Association:

- (a) a good and sufficient transfer under the Land Titles Act (Alberta) of Brookfield Residential's interest in the Orchards Amenities which on registration will cause title thereto (whether for a fee simple estate and/or a leasehold estate) to vest in the name of the Association subject to those interests or encumbrances endorsed on the title to the Orchards Amenities on the date thereof, including without limitation any deferred reserve caveat or any other charge, right-of-way or encumbrance that is imposed upon the Livingston Amenities by the City, or any statutory or regulatory body;

- (b) a bill of sale of all chattels owned by Brookfield and specifically used to maintain or benefit the Livingston Amenities;
- (c) a termination agreement which will terminate the Management Agreement. The Association agrees that such termination agreement will provide for the Association's release of Brookfield from all of its obligations and liabilities under the Management Agreement and with respect to, or in connection with, the Livingston Amenities; and
- (d) such other documents as Brookfield requires to effect the transfer of the Livingston Amenities to the Association;

12. It is understood and agreed that none of the building lots or sites contained in the Livingston Lands shall be subject to an annual rent charge until:

- (a) title thereto has been transferred by Brookfield to a homebuilder and then transferred from the homebuilder to the homeowner of such lot or site; or
- (b) title thereto has been transferred by Brookfield to the homeowner of such lot or site.

13. On or before the Effective Date, Brookfield will turn over to the Association all plans, specifications and operating manuals in Brookfield's possession relating to the management of the Association and the construction, maintenance, operation and management of the Livingston Amenities.

14. Either by the Effective Date or immediately thereafter, Brookfield will cause all of the officers and directors of the Association, which are Brookfield's nominees to tender their resignations.

15. Brookfield when and as requested will during a reasonable period after the Effective Date make available to the directors and officers of the Association any relevant information in its possession relating to the management of the Association and the operation of the Livingston Amenities, which information shall be provided without any requirement for Brookfield to determine the accuracy or relevance of such information, and Brookfield shall not be liable for the results of the inaccuracy or irrelevancy of such information nor for any damages suffered by the Association in using such information.

16. Until the Effective Date, Brookfield shall have full and absolute control of the overall management of the Association, and to construct, develop, manage and operate the Livingston Amenities and the Association, and its Members, officers and directors shall have no right or entitlement to do or share in any of these functions; provided always that each Member of the Association and their guests shall have access to and the right to use the Livingston Amenities in common with all other Members, subject to the observance of the rules and regulations made by Brookfield from time to time. Any addition to or amendments of the rules or regulations made prior to the Effective Date by Brookfield shall be binding upon the Association; PROVIDED ALWAYS that a Member's access to and right to use the Livingston Amenities may be suspended by Brookfield if the rent charge Encumbrance registered against the title to the Member's residence is in default, if it is removed or if the Member is in default with respect to the rules and regulations.

17. The following management provisions shall take effect until the Effective Date:

- (a) the Association hereby employs Brookfield as the Association's exclusive agent to manage the Association and to operate and maintain the Livingston Amenities to and including the Effective Date without any right of the Association to cancel such management arrangement;
- (b) Brookfield agrees to perform the management functions set out below in the name of and on behalf of the Association, subject to the terms of this Agreement, and the Association shall not give any direction to Brookfield, make any investigations or exercise any control of Brookfield's actions as manager and hereby grants to Brookfield such complete and absolute authority and power as in Brookfield's sole opinion may be required by Brookfield to perform or effect performance of such management function;
- (c) If Brookfield assists the Association in the collection and receipt of assessments, levies, contributions and any other charges due to the Association from the members of the Association, Brookfield shall not be responsible for collection of delinquent assessments or other charges;
- (d) Subject to the provisions of and any restrictions contained in this Agreement, Brookfield shall (until the Effective Date only) cause the Livingston Amenities to be constructed, operated, managed and maintained according to reasonable standards of construction, operation, management and maintenance consistent with the character, size and location of the Livingston Amenities;
- (e) Brookfield shall negotiate and may execute on behalf of the Association contracts for such services as may be necessary or desirable. Brookfield shall also either rent or purchase, as it determines is best in its sole discretion on behalf of the Association, such equipment, tools, appliances, materials and supplies as in its sole opinion are necessary for the management of the Association and the operation and maintenance of the Livingston Amenities. All such purchases and contracts may be in the name of Brookfield or the Association and in any event shall be assumed by the Association as at the Effective Date;
- (f) Brookfield shall ensure that appropriate corporate and other legal filings and records in respect of the Association and its operations, including financial statements and accounting records, are prepared and maintained;

- (g) Brookfield and the Association shall cooperate in maintaining liability and property damage insurance relative to the Association in force as provided for in paragraph 18 hereof; PROVIDED that the Association will indemnify and hold harmless Brookfield from any loss, costs or damages arising out of any claim, suit or action made by any of its members or their guests whomsoever, relating to either claims greater than such insurance or to claims where there is inadequate insurance coverage;
 - (h) Brookfield shall, based on the information and documents made available to it, assist the Association in keeping an up-to-date record of the names and addresses of all members of the Association of which it has knowledge;
 - (i) subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the Association shall not pay any fee to Brookfield as compensation to it for the services to be rendered by Brookfield in accordance with this Agreement, but any charges for employees or professional managers employed by Brookfield to assist in its management function hereunder shall be paid for by the Association to Brookfield on demand, and this may include persons whose firms or groups are also employed by Brookfield regarding the Livingston Lands; and
 - (j) Brookfield may engage or use any person, firm or company including any which is associated, affiliated or otherwise connected with it, to perform any work or services for Brookfield within the scope of Brookfield's duties pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, without being in breach of a fiduciary or contractual relationship with the Association.
18. Brookfield shall provide and maintain in full force and effect during the term of this Agreement with responsible insurance companies, the following insurance:
- (a) Such general comprehensive liability insurance of such nature and in such amount as Brookfield shall deem advisable protecting Brookfield and the Association relating to the operation of the Association including the development, construction of and initial management and operation of the Livingston Amenities in respect of liability and/or damage because of bodily injury and injury to or destruction of property arising out of such activities. Such insurance shall contain a cross liability clause;
 - (b) The Association shall pay to Brookfield to reimburse it for its actual costs in obtaining and maintaining such insurance, and where such insurance is part of Brookfield's overall insurance, then the Association shall pay its fair share of such insurance costs as determined by Brookfield's insurance brokers.
19. At any time before the Effective Date and notwithstanding anything else contained in this Agreement, Brookfield shall be entitled to enter into management agreements in its name or in the name of and on behalf of the Association with any person, firm or company (including any which is associated, affiliated or otherwise connected with Brookfield or the Association) for the administration, operation and management of the Association and the Livingston Amenities.

20. This Agreement shall be non-assignable by the Association without the prior written consent of Brookfield, which consent may, in Brookfield's sole and unfettered discretion, be withheld. This Agreement shall be assignable by Brookfield without the prior consent of the Association.

21. If the Association breaches its obligations as set out herein to not interfere with Brookfield's designing, engineering, planning, developing, constructing and initially managing and operating the Livingston Amenities and initially managing the Association, it shall pay to Brookfield all of Brookfield's costs resulting therefrom and damages suffered thereby including but not limited to the costs to Brookfield of all additional time spent by its employees, all additional costs of professional advisors, additional design, engineering, planning, development, construction, management and operational costs and the damages suffered by Brookfield resulting from such breach including any delays in completing construction of the Livingston Amenities and in the sale of its undeveloped building lots as contained in the Livingston Lands. The Association confirms its understanding that damages at law may be an inadequate remedy for a breach or threatened breach by it of this Agreement and agrees that in the event of a breach or threatened breach of any provision hereof, the respective rights and obligations hereunder shall be enforceable by an action claiming specific performance, injunction or other equitable remedy, but nothing herein contained is intended to, nor shall it, limit or affect any right or rights at law or by statute or otherwise of Brookfield as against the Association for breach or threatened breach of any provisions hereof, it being the intention of this paragraph to make clear the agreement of the parties that the respective rights and obligations of Brookfield hereunder shall be enforceable in equity as well as at law or otherwise.

22. As the Association has no responsibility or authority with reference to the overall management of the Association and the development and operation of or the Livingston Amenities until the Effective Date, until the Effective Date the Association has directed its officers and directors to not investigate or otherwise determine whether or not Brookfield is complying with the terms of this Agreement, and the Association has waived any responsibility of its officers or directors to determine whether or not Brookfield is carrying out its obligations pursuant to this Agreement.

23. It is specifically understood that Brookfield is an independent contractor and that all its actions to be performed hereunder shall be carried on by Brookfield under its own direction and superintendents, at its own risk and according to its own methods or procedures.

24. Up to and until the Effective Date, the Association shall take all required steps to maintain its existence and shall execute all documents required by Brookfield for the organization and management of the Association and for the development, construction, maintenance and operation of the Livingston Amenities and without any legal responsibilities for its actions in so doing.

25. This Agreement and the Exhibits hereto constitute the entire agreement between the parties and no representations, warranties or promises have been made by Brookfield to the Association save those herein contained.

26. If any provision of this Agreement shall be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected thereby and each provision hereof shall be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

27. This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

28. Amendments to this Agreement must be in writing and signed by each party hereto.

29. This Agreement and all amendments, modifications, alterations or exhibits hereto shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta as to the nature, validity and interpretation thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have caused these presents to be executed by their respective proper officers authorized in that behalf on the day and year first above written.

50. All acts done at any meeting of the Directors, or of a committee of Directors or any person acting as a Director shall, notwithstanding that it shall afterwards be discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of such Directors or persons acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director.

51. A resolution in writing, signed by all the Directors, including electronic signatures fulfilling the requirements of the Electronic Transactions Act (Alberta), without their meeting together, (which may be executed in several counterparts) shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Directors duly called and constituted, and shall be held to relate back to any date therein stated to be the effective date thereof.

52. The Directors shall cause minutes to be duly entered in books provided for the purpose:

- (a) of all appointments of officers;

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

53. Subject to Articles 54 and 55 below, the management of the business of the Company shall be vested in the Directors who, in addition to the powers and authorities by these Articles or otherwise expressly conferred upon them, may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Company and are not hereby or by statute expressly directed or required to be exercised or done by the Voting Members in general meeting; and without restricting the generality of the foregoing the Directors shall exercise general supervision of the affairs of the Company and may from time to time make rules and regulations in relation to the Company, and may at any time in like manner annul or vary any rules and regulations so made, and all rules and regulations so made and for the time being in force shall be binding on the Members, and shall have full effect accordingly; and without limiting the generality of the foregoing it is expressly declared that the following shall be deemed to be included as rules and regulations in relation to the Company within the meaning of this clause, that is to say, regulations:

TEMPORARY REMOVAL OF OFFICERS' AND DIRECTORS' AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITIES

54. The Livingston Amenities will be negotiated, designed, engineered and planned by Brookfield who has agreed to develop and construct such Livingston Amenities at its sole responsibility. Brookfield has also agreed, in accordance with the terms of the Livingston Management Agreement, to be responsible for the overall management of the Company and the management and operation of the Livingston Amenities for a limited period of time and to, within a certain specified period of time, transfer the overall management of the Company and the operation and management of such Livingston Amenities to the Company providing that the Company does not hinder its efforts or increase the development, construction, management and operating costs for the Company or the Livingston Amenities by becoming involved in, investigating or interfering in or trying to exercise any authority or control in the overall management of the Company or in the development, construction, management and operation of the Livingston Amenities. The Company has agreed to this condition and in order to relieve its officers and directors from any responsibility that they may otherwise have in the proper exercise of their responsibility to protect the interests of the Company and its Members and any alleged resulting breach of fiduciary obligations, until both the operation and control of the Company and the Livingston Amenities have been formally transferred to the Company by Brookfield, the powers of the officers and directors of the Company to manage the business and affairs of the Company are hereby temporarily restrained and are transferred to Brookfield and such officers and directors are hereby released from such duties and from any liability for failure to otherwise exercise such duty insofar as such duty relates in any way to the investigation of, determination of and enforcing of the proper and adequate quality of design, engineering, planning, development, construction, maintenance and operation of the Livingston Amenities or overall management of the Company. Except as set out above, such officers and directors shall retain their normal and usual rights, duties and responsibilities and will on a limited basis as requested by Brookfield be involved in the operation of the Company and the Livingston Amenities.

55. It is hereby disclosed to all Members that Brookfield is a Member of the Company and officers of Brookfield may also be directors and officers of the Company. All Members of the Company do hereby unanimously agree to the provisions of Article 54 above and do hereby unanimously and entirely release Brookfield, the Company and the directors and officers of the Company from the legal results of any conflict that they or Brookfield may otherwise be in as a result of Brookfield and the Company entering into an agreement for the initial overall management of the Company and for the development, the initial management of, and delivery of the Livingston Amenities to the Company including from the legal consequences of the directors and officers of the Company being partially restrained from and being partially released from their normal and usual rights, duties and responsibilities as provided for in Article 53 above.

57. The president shall be elected by the Board from amongst their number. The secretary and the treasurer or secretary-treasurer of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. The Board may appoint an assistant secretary, who shall be empowered to act in the absence of or under the direction of the secretary in the performance of the duties of the secretary. The Directors may appoint a temporary substitute for any of the above officers, who shall for the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be the officer for the position he occupies. This Article 57 is subject to the provisions of Article 54.1. Notwithstanding the foregoing, until the Effective Date, the president, secretary, and the treasurer, or the secretary treasurer of the Company shall be Directors who are nominees of Brookfield.

NO DIVIDENDS

60. As the Company is formed solely for the purposes of promoting recreation and social communication amongst its Members and it is the intention of the Company to apply the profits, if any, or any other income of the Company in promoting its objects and as the Company is not formed with gain for its object, no dividend whatsoever and no part of the income of the Company shall be divided among, payable to or be available for the personal benefit of any of the Members of the Company.

The Directors may also carry forward to the accounts of the succeeding year or years any profit or balance of profit which they shall not think fit to place in such reserve.

62. 64. The Directors shall implement a procedure to monitor and to determine the costs of operating the Company and the Livingston Amenities, and, without limitation, shall prepare for each fiscal year a detailed operating budget for the Company.

Tenant Members will not be required to pay a separate assessment if the Rental Member in respect of their rental project has paid the full assessment due from that Rental Member;

- (f) while Brookfield is a Member, or until the Effective Date, whichever is later, any change in the annual rental charge or in the principal amount of the Encumbrances (excluding any inflation adjustment as provided therein), shall require the prior written consent of Brookfield; and
- (g) if any Encumbrance has been foreclosed off of the title to the lot of a Member or has otherwise been taken off such title or if pursuant to a meeting of the Members, it has been agreed to register a new Encumbrance or a caveat giving notice of the change, the Homeowner Member or Rental Member agrees either to enter into any requested new Encumbrance to be registered against the title to his property or agrees to the filing of a caveat as referred to above and if he delays, fails, or refuses to complete the new Encumbrance the Company is hereby irrevocably appointed as his attorney on his behalf and for the Company's use and benefit, to sign and deliver such new Encumbrance in his place and stead.

Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else in these Articles, the Directors shall cause the Company to execute and deliver an absolute postponement (in a form registrable under the Land Titles Act (Alberta)) of any Encumbrance in favour of a mortgage on a single family residential lot (including a condominium unit) in the Livingston Lands, upon the Company receiving a written request therefor from the mortgagee or mortgagor under such mortgage, or from their respective legal representatives; PROVIDED THAT this requirement to postpone shall only apply if the mortgage has been granted or made pursuant to the National Housing Act (Canada) or any act passed or enacted in amendment thereof or substitution therefor.
